Girl Eagles Take Bi-District Crown

BY JACK DONOVAN

SNYDER, Tex.--The Canyon Eagles were within one victory today of making their second straight trip to Austin in quest of the girls state basketball championship.

The state tournament is next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

The only obstacle still in the path of the defending Class AAA champions is newcomer Pecos. The girl Eagles will meet the Pecos team in a regional game at 7:30 Saturday night in Lamesa.

The Eagles, striking swiftly on offense and playing defense superbly, crushed Stephenville 65-43 Tuesday night at the Scurry County Coliseum in Snyder in a bi-district game. It was the third consecutive year the Eagles and Honeybees met here and Canyon now has a 2-1 edge.

Canyon zipped to an 18-8 lead in the first quarter on the shooting of Linda Lehman and Cam Davis and then exerted a smothering defense led by all-state guards Cheryl Davis and Jenna Thompson.

The defense was so perfect in the second eight-minute period that the Bees were shut out from the field for 6:38. A free throw by Nita Stephens with 3:52 gone in the quarter and two more by her at the 5:13 mark were the only Stephenville points until Kay Wood scored her lone basket of the game with 1:22 remaining in the quarter.

A three-point play by Cam Davis pushed the Eagles to a 31-9 lead about midway of the second period and they went into halftime with a 35-15 advantage.

Stephens, who averaged 35 points a game for the season and several times topped the 40-point mark in a single game, was stopped with six points in the first half by Cheryl Davis.

Although she finished with 29 points, 17 of them came on 22 free throw attempts. Stephens shot 26 times from the field and was successful only six times.

"We were worried about that Stephens girl," Canyon Coach Bob Schneider said, after being carried from the floor on the shoulders of a number of Eagle backers. "Cheryl's height and the way she played her was the difference. We felt that Stephens could not move to her left so we overplayed her Performance times have been set for 7:30 p.m. through Saturday night and all tickets are reserved in seating sections of $1.50, $1.75 and $2.00.

Instructors in charge of the production are Bill Lyon, music; Sherry Dambold, stage director; and Charlotte Brantley, art director, Neil Hess is in charge of choreography and Carroll Killingsworth is in charge of hospitality arrangements.

MVC Officials To Inspect WT

Dr. James P. Cornette, president of West Texas State University, said Wednesday the Missouri Valley Conference has accepted the invitation of WTSU to visit the campus Feb. 26.

"We welcome the opportunity to show representatives of the Missouri Valley Conference our growing universsity and the Amarillo-Canyon area," Dr. Cornette said.

Representatives of most of the eight conference schools---North Texas State, Tulsa, Memphis State, Bradley, St. Louis, Wichita State, Louisville and Drake---will arrive in Amarillo Feb. 25.

The MVC representatives will look over West Texas State's academic and athletic facilities.

The visit is part of the procedure the conference follows in evaluating prospective members. A MVC official said no decision can come before the next conference meeting, which will be in May at Des Moines, Iowa.

"The university has long been proud of its previous conference affiliations and feels it could add to the present high stature of the Missouri Valley," Dr. Cornette said.

West Texas State has been an NCAA independent since the Border Conference was dissolved July 1, 1962. The university joined the Border Conference in 1942 after two seasons in the Alamo Conference and 11 years as a member of the Texas Intercollegiate Athletic Association.

"A conference affiliation is most desirable for the success of a well-rounded athletic program such as West Texas State is developing," the president said.

Included among the visitors will be the immediate past presiddent of the confereence, Dr. Carl Abner of Louisville, the conference president, Dean R. M. Robinson of Memphis State, faculty representatives and athletic directtors.

A luncheon has been scheduled for 1 p.m. Feb. 26, in the Gold Room of the East Dining Hall. A news conference will follow the luncheon.

The Missouri Valley guests have been invited to attend the West Texas-Utah State basketball game at the Amarillo Civic Center Coliseum that evening.

A former West Texas basketball coach and athletic director, Gus Miller, will be honored during halftime ceremonies. All former members of his teams have been invited to attend.

One of those to be present for the ceremony is his son, Dr. Bill Miller of North Texas State University, vice president of the Missouri Valley Conference.

Coach Miller, who guided the Buffaloes to 195 victories in 14 years, retired from coaching after the 1956-57 season.

Mayor Says Dump Case May Be Settled Today

Canyon's mayor, who this week termed a Randall County commission offer to pay $376 toward the city dump "an insult," said he will again place the dump grounds before city commissioners tonight.

Mayor Paul Lindsey said he will seek an equitable solution to the dump at the 7 p.m. meeting today in the city hall annex.

For months, the city and county have been discussing solutions to the dump.

A week and a half ago, the county commissioners voted to pay the city $376---one-third of the part-time salaries paid for dump employes for three months.

At that time, County Judge Carroll Brown indicated the city might solve its problem by charging more per load for dumping at the grounds.

"There are some who argue that those who use the dump should pay the bill," the mayor said. "This is totally unfair in my opinion.

"It would be just as unfair to say that those who lose a house by fire during the year should pay the total cost of the fire department."

The mayor was apparently countering statements by the county judge, who indicated the city might be able to carry its own expenses if it charged the same rates Amarillo charged at its dump ground.

The mayor indicated he may recommend to city commissioners tonight that the city dump be closed to all but city trucks and vehicles.

He said this week the only way to a real solution to the dump problem is a "county - owned and maintained solid waste disposal site.

"They could operate their own for their own people," he said.

The mayor told county commissioners last week, this might be a possible solution. He said he felt the city would be glad to lease a portion of its dump to the county for dumping purposes.

Other business scheduled to be discussed at the city commission meeting tonight includes:

Consideration of approval of placing stop signs at 5th Street and 8th Avenue, stopping north and south on 5th Street; 13th Avenue and 26th Street, stopping north and south; 12th Avenue and 26th Street, stopping north and south; 11th Avenue and

Hinton's Remark Spurs Rape Mistrial Ruling

BY SAM ALLRED

A spontaneous and heated remark by the Randall County assistant district attorney Monday caused 47th District Court Judge Gene Jordan to declare the forcible rape trial of three Hereford men a mistrial.

Judge Jordan ordered the mistrial for defendants Ernencio Barriantez, Jr., 20, Juan Pena, 19, and Eddie Castillo, 19, after he held that Michael Hinton had made an improper comment before the jury.

The remark came when Hinton asked Ernencio Barriantez, Sr. father of one of the defendants, if he knew he was about to be indicted before the grand jury for offering a bribe to a witness.

"You cannot threaten the witness with indictment," Judge Jordan said. "I grant a mistrial."

Following the trial, Hinton said "such matters are completely discretionary with the court."

"Apparently the judge felt the question was so harmful it could not be repaired by an instruction to the jury to disregard it," he said.

The assistant district attorney said that he had received information Monday morning that indicated the father was not telling the truth on the stand.

The three defendants were charged with the April 19, 1969 forcible rape of a 20-year-old Amarillo woman on a farm road in Randall County.

The prosecutrix testified that she had attended a Spanish dance in Amarillo the night of April 19, stopped briefly at a party afterward, went to a cafe to eat and then went home.

She said a car drove up to her address about 2:30 a.m.. and five men, including the three defendants, asked her to go to a nearby service station with them to obtain cigarettes.

The witness testified that after an hour's wait at the service station, while the three defendants talked to the occupants of another car, she was ultimately driven into the country and assaulted by the three defendants.

The woman said she resisted the assaults and received a head injury and

Bridges In Jail; Bonds Unaltered

District Judge Don Dean Tuesday afternoon refused an application to reduce a total of $70,000 in bonds for Richard Dean Bridges, filed by attorney Robert Carnahan in 181st District Court in Amarillo.

Bridges, 23, was one of 16 persons arrested in January and charged with various narcotics offenses. He was released Saturday after his father and grandfather posted sureties for the bonds, but was rearrested Monday when the sureties were found to be inadequate.

Carnahan reserved his right to appeal Judge Dean's decision to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Following testimony from Bridge's mother, Mrs. Howard Bridges of 4800 Parker in Amarillo, Carnahan and Potter County Dist. Atty. Tom Curtis stressed in their arguments to the court the question of whether or not the $70,000 in bonds is "excessive."

Carnahan cited a statute saying that bond should not be excessive nor should cruel and unusual punishment be inflicted.

"I submit to the court that a $10,000 bond is the appropriate amount," he said.

Curtis said that charges against Bridges were "offenses of the highest degree and the bond should also be of a high degree."

"The bond should be high enough to give reasonable assurance that the defendant will appear in court," Curtis said. "The state would oppose any reduction in bond, which is completely appropriate and urge the court to keep it in effect as it stands."

Bridges is charged in Randall with sale of narcotics and using a person under 21 to transport narcotics. He is charged in Potter County with violations of the Dangerous Drug Act and the Dangerous Narcotic Act.

The transporting charge carries a penalty of from 10 years to life in the state penitentiary.

Carnahan said that if he could take the stand and testify from his experience in such cases that the "odds of the state convicting Bridges on the transporting charge is two out of ten."

"I think it is a miscarriage of justice to leave him in jail another moment under this impossible bond," he said.

Following the hearing, Judge Dean said the fact

Future Farmers' Week Will Be Celebrated Here

Saturday begins National Future Farmers of America Week and the Canyon chapter, although it will participate in spirit, will hold off until March to celebrate.

Marcus Phillips, Canyon High School vocational-agriculture teacher and sponsor of the FFA chapter, said various stock shows in the state will attact many of the local members and the chapter has decided to postpone some of its traditional FFA Week activities until later.

"We normaliy have a speaker for the week for an all-school assembly," he said. "But, this year, six-weeks tests conflict with FFA week and we've decided to postpone the assembly for a few weeks."

Phillips said the assembly will probably be in March. Speaker is to be Bill Sarpolis, last hear's FFA state president.

The annual FFA banquet has been set for April 9.

"We postponed this because we've got about 10 boys down in San Antonio this week in a stock show and it makes it kind of hazardous to plan anything," Phillips said.

The FFA plans to sponsor a Western Day and Western Dance, he said, on March 21. This was postponed "to give more time to plan and get away from some of the stock shows," Phillips said.

Nevertheless, certain activities will take place next week on the CHS campus.

"The boys are going to dress up all week," Phillips said. "Normally, they dress up for a day for each class, but this year they'll dress up all week long."

In addition, announcements will be made throughout the week to CHS classes.

On Wednesday, the FFA members will host CHS teachers with cokes and cookies.

This year, the FFA at Canyon High has just over 100 members.

It began in 1936 under the then agriculture teacher, Milton "Buff" Morris. Morris is now director of student financial aids at West Texas State Universsity.

Morris said when he began the first chapter, he had about 30 boys in FFA, including one who is now serving on the Canyon School Board---Joe Gill.

Morris said he found the big advantage to FFA lay in the fact the boys could raise projects under the supervisory eye of an instructor.

The projects have become an important part of FFA work. Many students who

Computerized Roll In Offing

Randall County's next tax roll will be computerized if the price and services are right.

County commissioners Monday voted to advertise for bids for placing the county tax roll, delinquent tax roll and monthly reports on computer.

The county began looking into the computerization of tax rolls about a month ago when a representative of one company offered the service.

The commissioners decided bids should be taken. Randall County's voter registration is already being handled by computer.

Cost of computerizing the tax roll could range from $5,000 to $5,500.

Mrs. Audrey Bruse, tax assessor-collector, presented commissioners with specifications for doing the roll Monday.

She also presented a cost analysis of expenditures involved in the preparation of the county's monthly report on taxes.

She said a cost of $1,874 is involved currently in doing the report annually. To computerize the monthly report would cost about $1,080, she said.

Mrs. Bruse said computerization of the report would also give her employes more time to work on other county business.

Randall County Judge Carroll Brown asked if the computerization might not allow the office to work with fewer employes after those presently employed had resigned.

Mrs. Bruse said the process could keep her from having to hire new personnel when someone quit.

Bids will be opened at 1:30

FROM THE CANYON RIM

Merchants have been holding a series of meetings this week on how to increase business in Canyon.

Hereford has consistently been held up as an example. I think one of the things we need most is a positive attitude.

We'll get more business if we are hungry for it and are willing to work for it.

If every merchant in Canyon were gung ho for Canyon and really trying to increase his business and the pull of Canyon I'm sure we could do it and the percentage of increase would be high.

To prosper Canyon needs industry. We have everything going for us to get industry except reputation.

Somehow we've picked up a reputation--justified or not--of just not being interested in industry. We need to erase this image.

We need to make an effort to provide sites at reasonable prices. I think any industry that might want to locate here would be willing to pay its way but we may even need to make some tax concessions at first.

Canyon Chamber of Commerce needs the support of all the businessmen of the community and as many individuals as possible.

It is easy to shrug away the responsibility for giving financial and personal support to the Chamber by simply saying that the Chamber doesn't do enough to promote the town.

Canyon Chamber of Commerce was a staunch supporter of Mrs. Margaret Harper in the days when "TEXAS" was in its beginning. This brings thousands of tourists to town each year.

Last year the Chamber arranged for football playoffs in Buffalo Bowl which brought 18,000 people into Canyon. These people bought gasoline, ate meals and stayed in motels.

This alone behooves every cafe, motel and service station in the city to be members of the Chamber of Commerce.

I think Joe Gidden, a Chamber of Commerce workhorse, was right when he said: "The Chamber needs the financial and personal support of everyone."

It's a lot easier to knock it than to support it but the Chamber is dedicated to making this a better community to live in and it can accomplish that goal only in ratio to our individual support.

Four State Department officials appearing on the West Texas State University campus last week said the US image abroad isn't important.

I tend to agree but if it is not important why are we spending so much tax money abroad trying to improve our image?

Inflation shows no sign of abating. I'm no economist but I don't think the present method of higher and higher interest rates is going to cool inflation at all.

About the only thing it has done so far is to increase the take of the very rich and make it tougher on the wage earners and producers of this country.

It stands to reason that the people who will gain from high interest rates are the people who have money. The losers will be the people who must borrow.

High interest rates has killed off the building trade and to a large extent, industrial plant expansion but inflation remains with us.

I think the President will eventually have to resort to price and wage controls if he is to win the battle. So far, he has been reluctant to take such drastic steps.

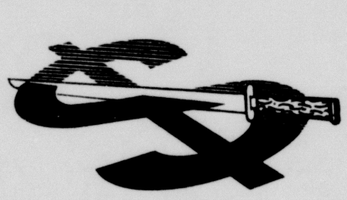
I appreciated very much the statement last week by Dr. Claude Boatman, retiring head of the WTSU chemistry department.

Dr. Boatman pointed out that fellow scientists have accumulated knowledge and produced products that have been a boon to man but have largely been responsible for pollution of our environment.

He said scientists in the future must ponder the effects of their handiwork on society.

a good reason to INSURE with US..



It costs less than others.

Why does a policy such as a Homeowners cost less than similar coverage? Because it is comprehensive,thus saving you money. Similar coverage would be purchased under separate policies,thus costing much more.

Enrollment Still On Rise, Says Cates

West Texas State University student enrollment continues in record numbers, Dr. Donald Cates, dean of admissions and registrar, said.

Second semester registrations reached a record 6,768, Cates said. This was 499 more than registered last year.

Last fall the university reached an all-time high enrollment of 7,935 students.

Cates said the decrease in enrollment between the fall and spring semesters was a natural occurrence.

Jr. High Manuscripts Published For Two

Two Canyon Junior High School students have recently had manuscripts published in "Young America Speaks" a publication by the National Essay Press in Los Angeles, California.

The two essays appear in the southwestern edition and are entitled "Back To School" by Linda Hester and "A Pacifist" by Teresa Engler. The essays were limited to 150 words and were the only essays submitted from the school here. Both were written as class assignments.

Teresa's subject was taken from "A Dangerous Game" after a class discussion of Richard Connell's "The Most Dangerous Game." Linda's subject was of her own choice.

Teresa, grade 9, age 14, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Engler of Rt. 2, Amarillo.

Linda, age 15, grade 9 is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hester of Canyon.

Both essays were written under the direction of Mrs. Beth Posey, ninth grade English teacher.

Teresa also had a manuscript published in "Young America Sings" which is a poetry anthology of the Southwest and published by the National Essay Press of Los Angeles.

Mrs. Posey related that all students, grades 7-12, may submit manuscripts and that the closing date for essays in the spring edition is March 10 while the closing date for poetry in the spring edition is March 25.

Burglary Charges Are Filed

A 21-year-old Amarillo man who was arrested Wednesday morning and charged with burglary of a private residence at night was released from Randall County jail later Wednesday after posting $500 bond.

Joachim Olaf Maiwald of 2508 Walnut in Amarillo was arrested by members of the Amarillo Police Department and charged with the January 12 burglary of a residence at 3505 Tyler.

Police said that Maiwald and two other men allegedly entered the house and removed two pistols and a coin collection. Warrants for the arrest of the other two men have been issued.

Maiwald was arraigned before Randall County Justice of the Peace W.A."Bill" Wilson.

New Leader For Pack 31

Bob Phillips has been appointed as cubmaster of the newly reorganized Pack 31 sponsored by the First United Methodist Church in Canyon.

Phillips is serving in his first capacity in adult scouting but was a boy scout while a student in junior high school at Breckenridge, Taxas. He entered scouting at the age of eleven and completed the rank of Star during a three-year membership.

He moved to Canyon with his family as a sophomore in high school from Graham, Texas in 1953, graduated from Canyon High School, and attended West Texas State University, receiving a degree in Business Administration in 1961.

Phillips entered the service July 1961 and was discharged with the rank of 1st Lieutenant in March of 1965 after serving three years in Germany.

Upon his discharge from the Army, he worked in the Personnel Department of Bulcan Chemical Company in Wichita, Kansas until the fall of 1967 when he came back to Canyon to be the Business Manager of the Canyon Independent School District.

He is married to the former Wanda Rogers of Canyon and the couple have three children, Mark, 8; Kristi, 5; and Lorilyn, 4 years old.

The family holds membership in the First United Methodist Church of Canyon and Phillips has recently become a member of the Canyon Volunteer Fire Department.

Our World

BY ANN BROWN

Americans are notorious for boasting--especially of personal prowess. Yet counselors know that the most prevalent American malady is an inferiority complex.

Reputable psychoanalysts agree that boasting is a common attempt to inflate a deflated ego. Inasmuch as the majority of American pioneers were people who had failed to find happiness and success in their native lands, it is understandable that they may have had deflated egos.

Any child who is frequently accused of being stupid, lazy, clumsy, or inadequate in other ways is likely to see himself in that light, whether or not the accusations are justified.

When a child is described as a fat, sloppy pig, or told he will never amount to anything, or that he was born for the penitentiary, he will have to make a very determined, enlightened effort to the contrary, or he will likely fulfill the prophecy.

It is realistic for people to feel inferior in areas where they really are inadequate. And all people are inadequate in some fields of endeavor. It is quite unlikely that any person could excell in everything. But when one is unduly concerned about his shortcomings or feels inferior in every area of interpersonal relationships, his complex is usually related to unfortunate rearing, or to some traumatic experience in childhood.

It is useless and needless, however, for one to whine his way through life because of an unhappy childhood or other misfortunes beyond his control. The wise peron will begin in the eternal present to improve his lot in life.

A middle-aged woman, who was deserted by an alcoholic husband, became so immersed in self pity that her teen-aged sons soon went to live with their drunken but amiable father.

Penniless, alone, and on the verge of complete despair, the good woman was persuaded to secure employment as a practical nurse. To occupy her spare time, she was assigned the watchcare of seven elderly widows. Although she had neither car nor money, she visited one widow each day. She read to a blind woman, prepared meals for an invalid, cleaned house for a cripple, shopped for a shut-in, arranged for lonely ones to visit friends and relatives, and escorted several to church.

In a few months she became a different person; her sons eventually came home, and her husband probably would have had he not already remarried.

The once lonely, miserable woman became one of the most beloved persons in the community. In giving so much happiness to others, she finally found it for herself. She never ceased to be amazed that people really loved her and enjoyed her company. Belatedly, she realized that it was probably her whining, selfishness, and insecurity that drove her husband to drink, and broke up her home.

If one suffers from feelings of inferiority, there are several sensible steps he can take to gain confidence:

1. Get the best counseling available. An inferiority complex is an emotional problem, but it can develop into mental and physical illness. A good counselor can help solve emotional problems and can supply moral support during the process.

2. Discover the basis of the problem. Let the counselor help find the origin of the low opinion of self.

3. Forget self. Concentrate on others who need help--family, friends, and neighbors.

4. Think positively. Read inspirational books, and stories of people who have overcome great obstacles. Memorize poems and proverbs which lend strength and encouragement.

5. Picture self as a capable, confident person. What we see ourselves to be, we usually become.

6. Try religion. In spite of its actual shortcomings, and undeserved criticism, the Church still attracts the best people. The Bible contains the most vital, inspiring, creative guidelines in print. The eternal mission of the Church is teaching people how they plus their Creator can accomplish any necessary task.

The ladies basketball teams have organized again and are trying hard for all the wins they can stack up. The Gene Howe Falcons are no exception and have already won the three games they have played, so far, this season.

January 29th they won 67-21 against the women's team from Robert E. Lee School in Amarillo; February 7th, they bagged the game from the team at Wildorado with a 38-4 victory and February 13th they played Carver and had to scramble to pull that game out with a lead of 40-31.

The team is scheduled to play Oak Dale at Sam Houston Junior High School in Amarillo Thursday evening at 7:00 p.m. and has another game at Wildorado February 26th at the Elementary School gym at 7:30 p.m.

'Honors Band' Receives Awards For Achievement

The Canyon High School "honors band" received a plaque for outstanding achievement in conjunction with the annual clinic of the Texas Music Educators Association in Dallas last week end.

Gary Zook, CHS band director, received an individual plaque for leadership and achievement awards as the TMEA Honor Band Director of Class AAA.

The two plaques were awarded at the honor band concert Friday evening in Memorial Auditorium in Dallas before a packed house of about 2,500 persons, according to Zook.

Zook accepted his own award and Miss Sarah Beth Meyer, all-state band member from Canyon High School, accepted the band's plaque in their behalf. Miss Meyer, who played a solo baritone during the concert, received a "standing ovation" for her performance.

With compliments for Miss Meyer, Zook stated that "this was the first soloist for honor band to receive as ovation in his past experiences with the TMEA honor band concerts."

Other all-state band members from CHS were Keith Zook, oboe; Mike Raillard, bassoon; and Teddi Crager, flute. CHS all-state choir members at the convention events were Candy Carpenter and Terry Landrum.

Zook also complimented the CHS band for their acceptance by ovation at the concert and said that "Canyon was well represented by the band in both their conduct, appearance and for cooperation of the students."

According to Zook, the CHS bands will now have to wait five years before submitting tapes for judging in the honors band competition due to alternating years and the fact that a winning band cannot enter the next competition for that class.

The CHS Band was named as honors band last July by a panel of five judges from the band division of TMEA and the selection was announced at the Texas Bandmasters Association meeting. Selection was made by judges listening to tape recordings of a public performance by the band. The honors bands are selected two each year to perform in conjunction with the TMEA convention. Alternating years, the bands come from AA and 4-AAAA schools one year and the following year from Class A or junior high and from 3-AAA schools.

Although selected on the performance tape of the 1969 band, the 1970 band, which includes 13 all-region bandsmen and 4-all-state bandsmen, was lauded for their efforts in the concert by Zook. The 1969 band had 2 all state members and 16 all-region bandsmen.

Scouts Take Sking Trip To Red River

Four Canyon Boy Scout troops were represented last week end on a two-day snow skiing trip to Red River, New Mexico.

About 120 were involved in the outing including scouts, parents and leaders.

The group represented Troop 66 of the First Christian Church with Lee Roy Moreland as Scoutmaster; Troop 97 of the First Baptist Church with Marvin Fite as scoutmaster; Troop 31 of the First United Methodist Church with Roy Lyles as scoutmaster; and Troop 108 sponsored by the Rotary Club with Stanley Carruth as scoutmaster.

Two Artists To Compete

Two Canyon High School students have been selected to have their portfolio entries in the Northwest Texas Art Awards competition sent to New York City for judging in a college scholarship program for art study.

Named among the portfolio winners were Robert Todd, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Todd, and Terra Perry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Perry of South Amarillo. Both are seniors at Canyon High School.

Judging of the contest was held last Sunday and the top entries of the region will be among about 400 to be on display through March 7 at White and Kirk downtown.

Mrs. Charlotte Brantley, CHS art instructor, said that final results of the judging have not been completed. Other awards and key honors are expected for several CHS art students.

Girl Scout Cookie Sales Aid Expenses

It is "Cookie Time" again, not only in the Canyon area, but all over the United States, as Girl Scouts, with order blank card and pencil in hand, converge on their neighborhoods.

The sales are to begin February 20th and end February 28th. Proceeds of the campaign go for various expenditures, some large and some small, but all necessary for the operation of the troops.

Much of the money goes toward the refurnishing of the Scout House, and such items as utility bills, and insurance on the Scout Building. Some of the money in the budget recently paid for paint and some of the labor for a new paint job for the interior of the Scout building. Next year, the exterior needs repainting.

Small items needed are pencil sharpeners, new window shades, paper products, waste paper baskets, etc. A vacuum cleaner and record player are also on the list of needed items.

All of these things take money and the girls will be out selling cookies in order to earn some of the money toward the purchase of many of these items.

The girl's will only be taking orders for the cookies. The orders will be placed and the cookies be delivered April 3rd through 11th.

LOSE 10 LBS. IN 10 DAYS ON GRAPEFRUIT DIET

HOLLYWOOD, CALF. (Special) — This is the revolutionary grapefruit diet that everyone is suddenly talking about. Literally thousands upon thousands of copies have been passed from hand to hand in factories, plants and offices throughout the U.S. and Canada.

Word of its success has spread like wildlife. Because this is the diet that really works. We have testimonials in our files reporting on the success of this diet. If you follow it exactly, you should lose 10 pounds in 10 days. There will be no weight loss in the first four days. But you will suddenly drop 5 pounds on the 5th day. Thereafter you will lose one pound a day until the 10th day. Then you will lose 1½ pounds every two days until you get down to your proper weight. Best of all there will be no hunger pangs. Now revised and enlarged, this new diet plan lets you stuff yourself with foods that were formerly "forbidden", such as big steaks trimmed with fat, roast or fried chicken, rich gravies, mayonnaise, lobster swimming in butter, bacon fats, sausages and scrambled eggs. You can eat until you are full until you cannot possibly eat any more. And still lose 10 pounds in the first ten days plus 1½ pounds every two days thereafter until your weight is down to normal. The secret behind this new "quick weight loss" diet is simple. Fat does not form fat. And the grapefruit juice in this new diet acts as a catalyst (the "trigger"), to start the fat burning process. You stuff yourself on the permitted food listed in the diet plan, and still lose unsightly fat and excess body fluids. When the fat and bloat are gone you will cease to lose weight and your weight will remain constant. A copy of this new and startingly successful diet plan can be obtained by sending $2 to GRAPEFRUIT DIET PUBLISHERS, 1213 Premier Way, Calgary 6, Alberta. Money-back guarantee. If after trying the diet plan you have not lost 7 pounds in the first seven days, and 1½ pounds every two days thereafter simply return the diet plan and your $2 will be refunded promptly and without argument. Tear out this message as a reminder. Decide now to regain the trim, attractive figure of your youth, while enjoying hearty breakfasts, lunches and dinners.

Ranked Aggies To Invade WT

After finally pushing their season record above the .500 mark last Saturday with a 96-73 victory over Southwestern Louisiana, the West Texas State University Buffaloes will have to stage a super performance Saturday night to beat New Mexico State's Aggies.

The Buffs went against underdog Hardin-Simmons University Wednesday night in Canyon.

But, they must hit the road this weekend to meet the Aggies in home territory.

Through the season the Aggies have remained ranked nationally. They now own a 20-2 record.

Jimmy Collins, the number one scoring threat from the Aggies, is averaging 24.4 points per game. Last Saturday he set an all-time single game school record with 42 points against the Air Force Academy.

Collins, a 6-2 jumping jack, needs only 24 points to become the all-time single season leading scorer at NMSU. He has 554 points and the record stands at 577.

But, Collins is not the only threat the Aggies field each outing.

Sam Lacey, who stands 6-9, is their second leading scorer with an 18.2 point-per-game average. Lacey is also averaging 15.3 rebounds per game.

As a team, the Aggies are averaging 91.4 points per game while their opponents are averaging 76.5. They are pulling down an average of 54 rebounds per game compared to their opponents' 42.6.

The Aggies trounced the Buffs 88-65 in their last meeting Jan. 27 in Amarillo's Civic Center Coliseum.

West Texas is not without its own scoring powers.

Dale Blaut's 40-point performance against Southwestern Louisiana was the third highest scoring mark for a single game in the school's history. He pushed his scoring average to 22.8 for the year.

Blaut is now the 12th leading scorer in the school's history. He has 771 points. The 11th man, Scotty Pierce, has 831.

James McCloud is hitting at a 14.9 point per game clip and is leading the team in rebounding with a 10.5 average. McCloud is 19th in scoring in West Texas history with 678 points. Ahead of him are Kookie Rogers with 681 and Bill Price with 713.

Ron Howle, who has turned in some fine performances this year, is scoring 12.6 points per game and Eddie Fitzgerald has a 12.2 scoring mark.

David Cole follows with a 5.4 point per game average.

Through 21 games, the Buffs have won 11 and lost 10. They had three wins in a row going against Hardin-Simmons Wednesday. This ties their longest winning string of the season, when they opened the year by beating Hardin-Simmons, 73-71, and then scored wins over Pan American and Samford.

West Texas returns home next Thursday to host powerhouses Utah State and Houston in Amarillo's coliseum to close its season. The Buffs play Houston on March 2.

West Texas lost earlier in the season to both teams--112-87 to Utah State and 91-83 to Houston.

Conservation District Okays PRPC Entry

Members of the board of the Palo Duro Soil and Water Conservation District voted recently to apply for membership in the Panhandle Regional Planning Commission.

Charlie Conatser was named the board's representative to the PRPC.

The district will become the third soil and water conservation district to join the commission.

Dues are $50 per year.

Ed Wieck is chairman of the board.

Coaches Receive Coin Sets

Members of West Texas State University's football team coaching staff, cheerleaders and several members of the news media have received complete six-coin sets of Trans World Airlines' "milestones in manned flight."

The coin sets were presented to 70 members of West Texas State's party which flew this past season to Wichita State and Western Michigan.

Bill R. Woods, senior sales representative in Amarillo, arranged for the flights and for the coins to be given to members of the football party.

The first of the six-coin set in Leonardo da Vinci, who in 1490 had a concept of manned flight. The second coin is the Montgolfier brothers, who in 1793, were the inventors and fliers of the balloon used in man's first recorded flight.

The third coin features the Wright Brothers. In 1903 they made the first successful launching of a powered aircraft. Charles Lindbergh, who in 1927 made the first transatlantic nonstop flight to Europe, is the fourth coin.

Amelia Earhart (1932), the first woman to make a nonstop flight of the Atlantic, is on the fifth coin. The final coin shows Apollo Eleven which made the first moon landing by man in 1969.

The coins are given by the airline for persons making numerous flights on TWA.

Miller, who guided the Buffaloes to 195 wins in 14 years, retired from coaching after the 1956-57 basketball season. He served as head of the physical education department until this year when he reached the age of 65.

All former Miller-coached athletes are invited to attend the game. A reception honoring Mr. and Mrs. Miller is slated at 6 p.m. that day at the Coronado Inn Motor Hotal, 701 South Pierce in Amarillo.

The West Texas-Utah State game is slated for 8 p.m. and Miller will be given an appreciation plaque at halftime by Cloyce Box, who lettered three years for coach Miller in the 1940's and is presently chairman of the board of regents of WTSU.

Miller will make the presentation of the Borden Price Scholarship Award to a physical education major at WTSU. All of his former players will also be recognized at halftime.

Seventeen High School Players Sign WTSU Letters Of Intent

Seventeen high school football players signed letters of intent to attend West Texas State University next year and play football.

The players, except four, are all from the Panhandle and Tri-State area. The four are from South Texas.

The four signed by assistant coach Lance Van Zandt are Billy Wilson, Harlingen; Filiberto Martinez, Kingsville; David Gonzales, Harlingen; and Mike Casas, Brownsville.

Wilson, 6-2 and 220-lbs., was an all-district offensive tackle for the District 26-AAAA co-champions. Martinez, 6-0 and 210, was the other all-district offensive tackle.

Gonzales, a 6-0, 195-pounder, was named to the all-district team as a tight end. Casas, 6-1 and 190, made the all-district club as a defensive end. He is a National Honor Society member and is president of the student body at Brownsville High School.

Casas is the fourth player to be signed from Brownsville. Three others who signed earlier were lineman Joe Petrarca and Walt Adams and defensive back Albert Trevino.

Thirteen players who signed Saturday on the WTSU campus included:

Rick Barry, 6-0 and 190, fullback from Canadian. A member of the all-district team. He gained nearly 1,000 yards and runs the 40-yard dash in 4.7.

Bobby Hobbs, 6-2, 208, center-linebacker from Elk City, Okla. Named to all-conference team.

Purcy Walker, 6-0, 215, an all-state tackle from Elk City, Okla.

Eagles Win 84-43 Over Tulia Hornests

The Canyon Eagles won their 10th straight district tilt Monday night by easily walloping Tulia 84 to 43 there.

Coach B. B. Kendrick played his reserves through the last five minutes of both the second quarter and the fourth quarter but the potent Eagle offense continued to run away with the score.

Only four Eagles made it to the double figure column during the game but 12 scored before the contest was over.

Jerry Landrum led the Eagle scoring with 19 points, followed by Bobby Martin, 18, Keith Keeling, 11, Ronnie Hager, 11, Kim Cawthorn, 4, Dorse Pennington, 3, and Larry Daniels, Ricky Johnson, Allen Bedell, Kelly Tinsley and Ray Podzemny, all 2 points and Vance Robinson, 1.

Coach Kendrick said his plan of rotating the post position in order to rest his forwards was continuing to work well, "but it was the 51 rebounds garnered by the defense that made the difference in the Tulia game."

Kendrick travelled to Pecos Tuesday to scout the powerful Ft. Stockton team the Eagles may have to slip past to travel to the state tournament, and came home Wednesday impressed with their size.

"They have a 6-feet-6 post man and 6-feet-5 and 6-feet-4 forwards," he said. "If we are going to beat them we are going to have to have a real good effort from our inside people."

Kendrick said Ft. Stockton is not "real fast but they are extremely agile."

"We hope to beat them from the outside," he said. "That is what we have been doing all year."

The Eagles will play Morton at 7:30 p.m. Friday at Friona in a warmup game. Morton, 24-6 for the season, won the District 4, 2-AA crown earlier in the season.

Shirley Shadix, left, Byron Nesbitt and Edie Campbell examine a tortoise shell currently under study by a West Texas State University paleontology class.

WT Class Is Restoring Prehistoric Tortoise

Restoration of a prehistoric fossil tortoise, estimated at 10 million years old, is being carried out by members of the vertebrate paleontology class at West Texas State University, Dr. Gerald Schultz, professor of geology, said.

The specimen was found last summer during a geologic prospecting trip at a ranch north of Clarendon in the Panhandle. Byron Nesbitt of Canyon, junior geology major, made the discovery when he spotted a portion of the fossil weathering out of a sandstone formation.

Some fossil fragments at the base of the formation led to the discovery of the skull and lower jaw of a prehistoric otter, about the same age as the tortoise, Schultz said. The otter skull is only the second of its kind to be found in North America, he said.

Members of the field crew returned to the ranch site at the end of the summer and excavated the tortoise. As the shell was unearthed, the otter skull and the remaining half of its lower jaw were uncovered. These fossils, found against the back side of the tortoise shell, were cleaned and restored by Schultz.

After the excavation, shellac was applied to the tortoise shell and a plaster jacket was prepared. However, attempts to transport the fossil to Canyon were unsuccessful when a makeshift stretcher of burlap and wooden tent poles was not strong enough to lift the shell in its cast.

The group returned to the site before the Christmas holidays with steel poles for the stretcher and loaded the shell into a truck. The fossil was brought to the campus and placed in the paleontology laboratory of the science building.

Schultz said discovery of the tortoise in the Panhandle indicates tropical conditions existed during its lifetime in the early Pliocene era. He referred to an experiment in the 1920s where land turtles were taken from the Galapagos Islands off Ecuador and transplanted in the southern United States. The turtles evidenced difficulty in survival because of problems in adjusting to the new climate, he said.

Canyon To Take Part In Area Cultural Growth

BY LORENA MILLER

(Editor's Note: The following is the first in a four-part series for the Canyon News, written by staff writer Lorena Miller).

Canyon is in the center of a project currently in the beginning stages which may develop the whole High Plains area of Texas into a center for tourism.

The new development of the High Plains Center For the Performing Arts has the possibilities of making tourists "want to stay around a few days," according to William A. Moore of West Texas State University and member of the board of directors.

"We already have 'TEXAS' out in the Palo Duro Canyon which draws large crowds each summer. We have Lake Meredith and Buffalo Lake National Wildlife Refuge. We have the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum and West Texas State University. Amarillo has numerous tourist features such as the new medical complex, the garden center, the civic center. And now Umbarger is the site for a future fun site in horse racing," stated Moore.

"These will all bring in tourists---and our job is to make life interesting and of a variety that they might like to sample another day or week of this while they are here in our area vacationing," he commented.

The High Plains Center For the Performing Arts was incorporated only this month as an educational non-profit corporation with the purposes of giving education and training in the performing arts such as music, theatre, art and for presentation of professional presentations in the area. Planning and groundwork for the corporation began last summer.

Reaching not only to Texas, but to Oklahoma and New Mexico, the arts center is planning to establish a professional performing art group and serve as a talent bureau and clearance center for all artists in this area.

The center will serve as a contact bureau for talent and thus will allow for Canyon, Happy, Tulia, Friona, Muleshoe, Silverton and all cities of the area to bring talent to their own cities for performances sponsored by either their chamber of commerce, or interested civic or other groups with the local sponsoring group receiving a "fair share of the profits" from the programs. For instance, among those currently listed with the center, the set fee for performances range from $50 to $600 and after that set fee and booking fees are taken out by the center. The remainder of the ticket sales would be left at the discretion of the sponsoring club or organization.

The center will benefit cities of the area also in that local talent will be incorporated with professional talent for the center's "professional company players." Thus students from Canyon High School and West Texas State University will be given more opportunity to learn first hand of the work, study and requirements for professional theatre.

Also the center will aid local talent by giving them (the artists, the pianists, the drama players, noted authorities in any subject, etc.) an opportunity to be among programs listed by the center available for travel to any city within a radius of about 400-500 miles for presentation of their program or exhibit.

Moore said education of the public is a major concern of the center at the present time.

Moore said the center will be in need of funds and contributions and hopes to raise $70,000 for the project. Canyon's portion of the projected contribution goal will be $2,500.

Goals and projects of the center will be discussed more fully in upcoming issues of the news allowing for insight into the various phases of the overall plan.

The street address of the registered offices of the High Plains Center For The Performing Arts is 3201 Harmony in Amarillo and Edward Thomas, 3809 Lewis Lane, Amarillo is president of the board of directors.

Hope McKenzie of the English department at West Texas State University is secretary for the board of directors. Several Canyon residents are members of the board of directors for the center including Arch Hunsley, Mrs. Bill Adams, Jack Taylor, Dr. James P. Cornette, Mrs. James P. Cornette, Dr. Emilio Caballero, William A. Moore, Mrs. Emilio Caballero, and Mrs. Monica Heiman.

A DISCUSSION AMONG "George M" chorus members is photographed with, from left, Sarah Taylor, Mary Raef, Marilyn Schuette, Katie Dogburn and Rena Hillier in the scene. Tickets for the production tonight through Saturday at Canyon High School are reserved in sections of $1.50, $1.75 and $2.00.

Canyon Woman's Hobby Of Quilting Benefits Many

BY JOAN FOWLKES

Compassion for the fellowman was the reason for a hobby of a Canyon woman. The hobby of making quilt tops has snowballed for Mrs. Dora Lane until she is making as many or more, than 100 tops a year.

It all started, she said, about six or seven years ago when during a blizzard, elderly people and babies from a Navajo Indian Reservation in Colorado, froze to death from the lack of warm clothing. A mission from the Assembly of God Church appealed to members for anything in the way of food, clothing, bedding, etc. Since that time Mrs. Lane has used any and all fabric scraps available to her to help keep these people from the same fate.

Not only are these quilts sent to the Navajo Indians in Colorado, but to Flagstaff, Arizona; Phoenix, Arizona; and to the Apache Reservation near Dulce, New Mexico. And in the past year, some have been sent to our fighting boys in Vietnam.

Mrs. Lane, using her sewing machine, only pieces the quilt tops. Members of the Women's Missionary Council of the Assembly of God Church in Canyon supply the backing and lining and also do the quilting.

Designs are not an important feature in the tops as the decorative quilts take too much time and waste a certain amount of material which is needed very badly. She pieces mostly hit and miss, block, and string quilts. They are called such because the hit and miss is quilted without the blocks and pieces being the same size or matching pieces. The block quilts are made from the larger scraps while the string quilts are pieced using even the smallest pieces of material. One of the most important features of the quilts is the size. They are all very large so they will not be too skimpy to cover properly.

Material and supplies for the tops come from interested persons that sew and have the scraps left from home made garments. The inter-lining of the quilts is not made of the customary cotton batting, but of worn out sheet blankets or blankets that are donated. The purpose for this is the negligent manner in which the Indians launder. The batting would not survive their laundering methods.

Mrs. Lane has lived in Canyon since 1956 having moved here from San Antonio. She has raised seven children, one of whom is married to a minister in Los Angeles, who also receives her quilts for needy persons in their area.

At 86 years of age, Mrs. Lane is very enthusiastic about her work and said that she must have more quilting scraps in order to keep up with her past accomplishments of quilting the 500 to 600 tops she has finished in the past five years.

Once each year, the missionaries in the fields come to the home office of the church which is established in Lubbock for what is known as "Christmas in October." It is at this time that they collect the donated items and return with them to their missions and those who need them. Other items such as clothing, groceries, gifts for children, plus other needed articles have been donated by the local church besides the quilts.

Anyone wishing to donate material, thread, or worn-out blankets may call Mrs. Lane at 655-7816 or contact the Assembly of God Church in Canyon.

Examining and discussing the quilt tops soon to be quilted by members of the Women's Missionary Council of the Assembly of God Church in Canyon is Mrs. Dora Lane. PRPC Committee To Study Joint Landfill Possibilities

The health task force of the Panhandle Regional Planning Commission will conduct a study on the feasibility and desireability of establishing a sanitary land fill for use by four area governmental entities, including Canyon and Randall County.

On a motion by Kenneth Olsen, the PRPC voted to submit the problem to the solid waste committee of the task force for consideration.

The study is to specifically focus on a land fill for use by Amarillo, Canyon and Potter and Randall counties.

"I believe the area has an intermediate solid waste disposal problem," Olsen said at the Wednesday PRPC meeting. "We don't know enough about the problem, the laws in regard to handling the solid waste. We as the regional planning commission have the responsibility to find out as much as possible and take any action it is feasible or desireable to take."

Olsen indicated the study would not solve the immediate problem facing Canyon and Randall County concerning the city dump ground.

He said the Canyon dump is "an immediate problem which must be solved immediately and will be."

The regional planning commission also took action to join several committees under various forces which have been outlined in the 1970 Goals for Texas, prepared by the state Governor's office.

Task forces under the Goals for Texas are education, the economy, general government, health, housing, natural resources, human resources, recreation and open spaces, public protection and transportation.

Merged into the above task forces were the following committees: library into the eduation task force; solid waste into the health task force; water into the natural resources task force; sewer into health task force; zoning into recreation and open spaces task force; fire into public protection task force and airport into transportation task force.

Amarillo Assistant City Manager and secretary of the PRPC Leland Nelson gave each commission member a questionnaire to be filled out and returned by May 15 by their various task forces concerning their own goals for the 1970's.

The committees are to decide their specific goals on a two-year, six-year and 10-year basis.

The various goals will be submitted to the governor's office for compilation.

Lou Oddle, newly named assistant city manager in Amarillo, was elected by the PRPC to replace Nelson as commission secretary. Nelson resigned his Amarillo job.

Next meeting of the PRPC will be March 4.

In other business, Justice of the Peace Bill Wilson told the commissioners several new air conditioners are needed on the second and third floors of the county courthouse.

Commissioners suggested an air conditioning expert be asked to inspect the rooms and determine the need.

The commissioners informally approved Wilson's request to purchase a desk for $125.

Randall County Juvenile Probation Officer Woody Pond appeared before the commission again to request an additional car for his assistant.

Bill Butler and Judge Brown were skeptical about buying another car for Pond's office.

"I don't think there's a need for another car," Brown said.

Pond has previously explained that his assistant spends most of his time in South Amarillo, while Pond stays in Canyon. He said a car is needed for this reason.

Butler suggested the assistant be allowed a certain amount of mileage, which the county would pay per month, to drive his own car.

The issue was passed until next commissioner's court meeting.

Stephenville, which concluded its season with only its third setback in 23 games, hit a poor 23 per cent, making 10 of 44 field goal tries.

On the other hand,Canyon, now 26-8, drilled in 65 per cent of its shots, connecting on 28 of 43 from the field.

Lehman, one of the heroes of last year's state championship games, topped the Eagles with 25 points, one more than Cam Davis. Lehman scored a basket three times for every four attempts, making 12 of 16 for 75 per cent. Davis shot 61 per cent, connecting on 11 of 18.

"I was pleased with the outside shooting of Linda Lehman," Schneider said. "They played a sagging defense and this gave our outside shooters a chance."

Jan Sternenberg, who last week was chosen Miss Canyon High School, added 13 points and Leta Gill got 3 to complete the scoring.

The Eagles raced to a 27-point lead early in the third quarter but saw it shaved to 50-30 at the end of the period. The Bees cut it to 18 points at the outset of the final quarter but that was as close as they could get.

Sternenberg and Cam Davis checked the Stephenville comeback with baskets and Lehman ended it by stealing the ball and going in for another two-pointer and a 58-34 bulge.

Schneider said he did not feel Stephenville was as strong as the last two years when the two teams plated for a berth in the state tournament.

"I thought they would be stronger offensively, but I did not expect them to be stronger defensively," he said.

bruises as she was thrown to the ground outside the car. She told the court and the jurors that she "was afraid."

"One of them said 'I think she is going to tell.' I told them I wouldn't because I was afraid," she said.

Testimony revealed that as the car was returning to town, driven by Pena, it was pursued South on Georgia Street in Amarillo at speeds "up to 100 miles per hour."

Seldon Hale, Amarillo defense attorney, brought out under cross examination that the service station was near enough to the woman's home that she could have walked home if she felt she was in danger and that "None of the boys drug you into the car."

Hinton asked the witness if she was offered $100 by the father of Barriantez not to testify and she answered "yes."

"I told him they didn't feel sorry for me then, why should I feel sorry for them now," she said.

Jim Durham, also acting as a defense attorney, asked the witness if she didn't remember saying to Barriantez' father that she wouldn't testify if she had $400, to which she answered "no."

Hinton introduced into evidence the dress the prosecutrix was wearing at the time of the alleged assaults, a button from the dress and a cigarette package, both found at the scene, and a piece of torn panty hose she was allegedly wearing when the attacks took place.

The only defendant to take the stand before the mistrial was declared was Barriantez, who testified he was "passed out" from the time the four left the woman's house until the police stopped the car.

Barriantez said he did not assault the girl and did not remember anyone else assaulting her.

A Spanish minister acted as interpretor for both Barriantez and his father during the trial.

Barriantez, Sr., testified that he went to the woman's home after his son had been arrested and that she told him she wanted "$300 to take her child away from her husband." Barriantez Sr., further testified that the woman told him his son was "drunk and in the back seat."

"Ask him if he knows what perjury is?" Hinton said. "Ask him if he knows he is under oath?"

After the defendant answered 'yes" to both questions, Hale instructed the interpreter to ask if he was a Catholic and if he was telling the truth, to which he also answered "yes."

Durham had the interpreter then asked if Barriantez, Sr., had ever been indicted by the grand jury for attempting to bribe a witness, and he answered "no."

Hinton, visibly angry, turned half-way to the interpreter and said "ask him if he knows he is just about to be," and the trial was over.

Dist. Atty. George Dowlen, who had stepped out of the courtroom briefly when the remark was made, said the outcome of the trial was unfortunate but was something that happened.

"Frequently in the trial of a case a lawyer will intend to ask one question but actually ask another," Dowlen said. "In this case, unfortunately, the words that came out were improper even though there was no intention of asking an improper question."

Dowlen said the case would probably not be set for retrial before the April 27 docket call for trial "sometime this summer."

The district attorney said he felt prior to the mistrial that "the case was going very well."

MRS. T. B McCARTER, 1819 5th Avenue, was hostess and speaker for the Woman's Book Club of Canyon Wednesday as she presented a program on her woodcarvings for about 20 club members. Miss Allison-Jimmy Schrib Wed In Happy

Miss Linda Jo Allison and Jimmy Van Schrib were united in double ring marriage vows read Saturday evening, February 14, at the First Baptist Church in Happy.

Rev. Travis LaDuke of the First Baptist Church in Balko, Oklahoma officiated at the ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Allison of Happy. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Ira Schrib of Wayside.

A three arch candelabra with votive candles entwined with salal leaf framed the setting. At the altar were arrangements of pink gladioli and hearts in massive Grecian urns, flanked by two spiral candelabra interwoven with salal leaf and ornamented with pink tapers. The setting was centered with a white satin prie dieu. Aisle candelabra with votive candles, salal leaf and pink bows marked the pews of the bridal aisle.

Barry Stevens sang "Whither Thou Goest" and during the ceremony sang "Walk Hand In Hand." At the close of the ceremony, as the couple knelt, the vocalist sang "Wedding Prayer" by Dunlap. He was accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Clovis Vernon of Happy, who also played traditional wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of peau de soie, English net and Alencon lace trimmed with seed pearl embroidery. The neckline featured a cowl collar appliqued with Alencon lace and edged in narrow lace. Appliques of the Alencon lace enhanced the bodice. Both the collar and bodice were embroidered in seed and pear shaped pearls. Long puffed sleeves were made in English net and appliqued in Alencon lace and caught at the wrist by rows of narrow lace and tiny buttons. The long A-line skirt was held below an empire bodice and carried a wide banding of Alencon lace at the waltz line of the gown.

A detachable chapel length train was sprinkled with appliques of Alencon lace and held beneath a fabric bow. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was in elbow length tiers and was held to a coif of lace petals outlined in seed pearls and enhanced with silk rosebuds and a miniature bow. Atop a white pearl-backed Bible, she carried a cascade of white orchids surrounded by white carnations, stephanotis, accented with pink sweetheart roses and ribbon streamers tipped with hearts.

For something old the bride wore a lavallier belonging to her maternal grandmother; something new was her wedding gown and diamond earrings, a gift from the bridegroom. She carried a white handkerchief borrowed from Mrs. Celeste Elliott and wore the traditional blue garter and a lucky penny in her shoe.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Sharrel Selvidge of Hereford, twin sister of the bridegroom. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Bob Christenson of Lubbock, sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Richard Hunter of Dimmitt, Mrs. Royce Grant and Miss Doan Lusk, both of Canyon.

The empire backs and wide pleats were emphasized with velvet ribbon streamers and a bow in center back.

Mrs. Grant and Miss Lusk were dressed in pastel pink gowns with shocking pink velvet ribbon emphasizing the bride's chosen colors of shades of pink and moss green. Their hair was adorned with pink sweetheart roses and each attendant carried a nosegay of pink carnations, pink sweetheart roses, pink streamers tipped with hearts and accents of moss green illusion.

The flower girl, Miss Sonya Selvidge, niece of the bridegroom, from Hereford, wore a pastel pink gown with shocking pink velvet ribbon accents. She wore a wristlet corsage and carried a white basket with pink streamers filled with white rose petals.

Ringbearer was Shannon Selvidge, nephew of the bridegroom, from Hereford. He carried a white satin heart-shaped pillow tufted with illusion and highlighted with pearls. Candlelighters for the ceremony were Lonnie and Stuart Tackitt of Happy.

Best man was Jim Allison of Big Springs, brother of the bride. Groomsmen were Ronnie Wesley of Amarillo, Wayne Stevens of Lubbock, Richard Kennedy and Ronnie Middleton, both of Happy.

Ushering were Ken Danner of Happy, Sharrell Selvidge of Hereford, Jim McManigal of Lubbock and Bob Robinson of Canyon.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Allison chose a pastel pink costume ensemble with beaded collar, hat of pink flowers and pink accessories. The mother of the bridegroom chose a mint green knit dress with platinum beige accessories. Both mothers and the maternal grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Ira Prewitt of Ralls, wore corsages of pink roses for the occasion.

The couple was honored with a reception in fellowship hall of the church where the receiving line included the bride and bridegroom surrounded by a seven-foot heart outline of shocking pink satin with pink gathers of net around the edges.

The bride's table was laid with a shocking pink floor-length cloth accented with moss green lace and velvet ribbon. The centerpiece was a sterling epergne with an arrangement of pink carnations, pink roses, greenery and pink tapers. Green frosted punch was served from a silver punch service and a four-tiered wedding cake with pink roses topped with white wedding bells complemented the setting. Alternating at the serving table were Mrs. Melvin Garrison of Amarillo, Mrs. Sam Mayo of O'Donnell, Mrs. Russell Peck of San Antonio and Mrs. Marvin Hayes of Enid, Oklahoma.

Covered with a moss green peau de soie cloth, the bridegroom's table was trimmed with shocking pink velvet ribbon and appointed with white china and an antique silver coffee service. Two triple candelabra with pink tapers, centered by the bride's bouquet and a half moon made by the nosegays of the attendants complemented the table setting. The chocolate groom's cake and coffee were served by Mrs. Ronnie Wesley, Mrs. Jerry Dustman, both of Amarillo, Mrs. Jerry Shipman of Hereford and Mrs. Bobby Bauthreaux of Altus, Oklahoma.

Rice bags attached to shocking pink hearts with moss green puffed centers were distributed at the reception by Rakenda Grant of Canyon and Debbie Mayo of O'Donnell.

For a wedding trip to interest point in Colorado and New Mexico, the bride chose a red wool knit ensemble with navy and white trim at the neck and hemline. The coat featured a pleated skirt, wide belt and large cords of white and navy giving a standing collar effect with gold metal buttons. Her accesories were navy with red trim and accent was the orchid lifted from the bridal bouquet.

The couple will establish their home at 1806 Yonkers, Apartment 2, in Plainview.

The bride received her BBA from West Texas State University where she was a member of Delta Zeta social sorority, Alpha Chi, and Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges. She was employed by Happy Public Schools and traveled as a field secretary for Delta Zeta nationally and was also employed with Mason & Hanger in Amarillo.

The bridegroom received his B. S. from Texas Tech, where he was a member of the Agronomy Club and on the Dean's List for three semesters. He was employed at Farm Pac Kitchens in Lubbock and is an agronomist at the High Plains Research Foundation at Halfway, Texas.

The bridegroom's parents were hosts at the rehearsal dinner Friday night at the banquet room of Omer's Cafe in Tulia with about 35 guests attending. A large number of out-of-town guests attended the wedding and reception Saturday evening.

New WT Student Union Nearing Completion Now

The new $3 million Student Union Building being constructed at West Texas State University is nearing completion and promises to be one of the finest facilities on any campus in the nation.

The list of functions the building will house is seemingly endless, but committees are presently hard at work trying to formulate policies that will fit the needs of every student.

"I have been told the building will be finished April 1, give or take 15 days," said Frank Castleberry, director of the SUB. "The Student Union Board is busy now trying to formulate policies for the new building."

Castleberry said the new structure was designed to "provide space for leisure time, athletics, cultural and social activities plus the physical aspects."

The student forced to participate in physical education will be able to enjoy such goodies as a 50-meter by 25-yard swimming pool, an eight-lane bowling alley, a weight room with three eight-station weight units and an all-purpose room that houses four full-length basketball courts as well as room for volleyball and tennis.

Leisure-time activities will center around table tennis, 10 pool tables, meeting rooms of all sizes, a quiet game area for cards, dominoes and chess, and television lounges and listening rooms.

Castleberry said construction on the buiilding has progressed down to the "final touches, such as putting the tile around the swimming pool."

When the new Student Union Building is completed, the 8,000-plus student population at WTSU will seemingly have one more bit of proof that their university intends to be one of the most modern in the State.
